DETAILED ACTION

General Comments

1. This application has been transferred to Examiner Gregory Adams.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:
4. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The recitation upper and lower opposed guide plates which provide for relative rotational movement there between to simultaneously effect pivotal movement...while effecting rotational movement...", found in lines 5-8 of claim 1, is unclear with respect to how the guide plates provide for" relative rotation and is also unclear with respect to how the guide plates effect the simultaneous pivotal and rotational movements.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Beavers (US 3,648,867).

3. Referring to FIGS. 1-4 Beavers discloses a spare tire carrier including support arm 21 and tubular assembly 21, 22, 23, 24 and 26. For further explanation of elements in Beavers see Response to Arguments section below.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed January 10, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

6. Applicant argues that Beaver (US 3,648,867) does not teach upper and lower planar guide plates. Beaver '867 discloses a spare tire carrier including support arm and tubular assembly 21, 22, 23, 24, 26.

7. By way of further explanation, referring to FIG. 2 [shown below], Beaver '867 discloses an upper planar guide plate 26, 23 and a lower planar guide plate 24, 22 that are coupled together (col. 1, line 71). It is noted that a plane, i.e. planar, is defined by the X-Y plane, and rotational movement is about an X-axis which extends through the upper and lower planar guide plates. Further, it is noted that upper planar guide plate 26, 23 and a lower planar guide plate 24, 22 rotate about an axis as shown in Beaver FIG. 5, to cause movement of the support arm.

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
